

PRESS ACCREDITATION REQUEST FORM

> Media Accreditation Summary <

Accreditation Requirements

- Accredited members of the media will have their registration fees waived. Accommodation and travel are not included.
- Accreditation is at the discretion of the Press Office.
- Media Accreditations will be issued on a first-come, first-served basis. There are a limited number of press accreditations for each media organization because of limited space.
- Please submit your request for accreditation to the Press Office by October 31, 2008
- The deadline for press accreditation is November 15, 2008. We will not process requests for accreditation after that date.
- We will not grant press accreditation on the spot.
- You will receive information from the Future Capitals once accreditation has been granted.
- Accredited media will be provided access to photo calls, press conferences, the media center, and sessions/lunches/dinners open to reporting press, radio & television.
- As part of accreditation, the Future Capitals reserves the right to reprint, free of charge, any press articles derived from the coverage of its activities. The Future Capitals in its own publications may reprint this material.
- Submission of your information does not guarantee accreditation.

In order to receive accreditation, it is mandatory for all journalists to submit the following:

By mail, fax, email or via the online website form:

- A completed copy of the accreditation form (see form below)
- A copy of your press card
- A letter from your editor/director/producer on company letterhead that assigns you to cover FC and specifies the type of coverage you are planning. Please include anticipated publication/air date of your coverage if known.
